

EXPLORE-ABILITIES ACCESS PROGRAM

Registration for our 2020 I Can Pretend! Explore-Abilities After School Drama Program has been extended - spaces are limited and filling fast!

Led by educators from the Autism Learning Centre, this drama-based program teaches children with autism how to play with peers and form relationships through the power of dramatic play.

To register or to learn more, please contact us at 204.924.4003 or click here to visit our website.

About This Program

Dates: Wednesdays from February 5 - March 25, 2020

Time: 4:30PM - 6:00PM

Cost: $80.00 per participant

Get ready for new adventures! In the I Can Pretend! Explore-Abilities After School Drama Program, your children will laugh, learn, and rejoice in the power of dramatic play. Teacher-led improvisation, short scenes, story theatre, puppets, and crafts will nurture creativity and assist children in developing imaginative play and social skills. Listening and sharing will be the main focus of this class.

Following one hour of instruction with I Can Pretend!, participants will have exclusive access to the galleries featuring the sensory-friendly adaptations we offer for our Explore-Abilities Mornings.

This program is suitable for children ages 5 - 9.

How To Register

Contact our Director of Education & Exhibits at 204.924.4003 or complete the online Registration Request Form here to register for the I Can Pretend! Explore-Abilities After School Drama Program.

About I Can Pretend!

I Can Pretend! is an innovative drama-based program that teaches children with autism how to play with peers and form relationships. Created by a seasoned drama educator and parent of a child on the autism spectrum, this program uses best practice teaching for children with autism including modelling, picture activity schedules, familiar routines, repetition and reward.

